The police of Chillicothe arrested a man with many aliases Monday. He gave his name as W. A. Elliot, alias W. H. White, alias J. H. Wiley. He is either a little off, mentally, or a smooth grafter. He posed at one place as the long lost grandson; at another home he convinced them that he was a cousin. He succeeded in getting free board and lodging for two days from these people. When questioned the next day about his actions, Elliot declared he was drunk and did not remember the happenings. The officers suspect he is a deserter from the army as he wears a regular U. S. uniform with G. A. R. buttons.

Faster and faster the peace is set,
By people of actions, vim and get,
So it is at the finish you would be,
Take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea.
E. W. HERRING.

Rev. J. F. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist church in Chillicothe, fell an easy victim to the wiles of a smooth grafter last week. The stranger gave his name as Fritz Waggener and said he was in great distress. His role was that of an ex-convict whom all honest men shunned and he was unable to get work. Rev. Smith invited him to stay at his home for supper and took him to a hotel arranging for Waggener's lodging and breakfast. The man disappeared and a few days later Rev. Smith read of the same graft being worked on a Kansas City Baptist preacher.

Are you tired, fagged out, nervous, sleepless, feel mean? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea strengthens the nerves, aids digestion, brings refreshing sleep. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.
E. W. HERRING.

A thief entered the home of Hardin Lowry, col., of Moberly and stole a suit of clothes and some other articles. A local fortune-teller told Lowry where he could find the clothes and described the place exactly. Lowry is a happy negro now for he is wearing his new clothes.

A. Widder of Sweet Springs after a thorough search in his peach orchard, could not find a single live peach bud. He cut into more than a hundred buds taken from different exposed portions of his orchard and failed to find one live one. He further says that his astonishment was beyond measure when he found the crop in such condition, and can account for it in no other way than that the buds were killed by the sleet of three weeks ago. The cherries and plums are all right.—Sweet Springs Herald.

A marauder evidently, seeking only money, broke into the hardware store of P. H. Nise of Moberly Saturday night. There was no money, either in cash drawer or the safe, and nothing else seemed to have been desired.
